How much can you afford for rent?

- You should pay no more than 30% of your gross income for rent (& utilities).
- Find out what utilities are needed. Ask the utility company about deposits, fees, and monthly bills for the home before you rent it.
- Utilities may be higher in large, old houses. New, smaller apartments should cost less.
- Think about transportation costs too.

Look before you Rent

Never rent a home without looking at it. Inspect the home carefully. Write a list of any repairs, cleaning, carpet, or paint. Landlords who disturb paint on homes built before 1978 must use lead safety and clean up paint chips & dust to protect children from lead poisoning.

If repairs are needed, make a list of when the landlord will complete repairs, and have the landlord sign it. It is best to get repairs done before you move in. If any repairs are not done, take photos, write down problems and have the landlord sign it, so you won't be charged for damage you didn't do.

Application Fee and Credit Check

Once you find a home to rent, the landlord may ask you to fill out an application and pay an application fee. Application fees are often used for credit, criminal & eviction record checks. A Social Security Number or Tax ID Number may be needed to check your credit.

Lease, Notice to End & Late Fees

Before moving in, you usually sign a lease. Read the lease. If there is anything you don't understand, ask the landlord. Keep a copy of the lease, all receipts, & rental documents.

The lease says how much notice must be given to end the lease--usually 30-60 days notice for a 1-year lease. With month-to-month tenancy or no written lease, 7 days notice is required to move or change rent.

The lease states the amount of rent, when rent must be paid, and the amount of any fees. Late fees cannot be more than $15 or 5% of the rental payment, whichever is greater.

Security Deposit

When you sign a lease, you may pay a security deposit. Deposits may NOT be more than 2 months rent for leases of more than a month or 1-1/2 month rent for month-to-month.

Your security deposit is kept in a separate account. Landlords use the deposit at the end of the lease to pay for rent owed, late fees, court costs, cleaning and damage you cause above normal wear and tear. If you leave early, the landlord can charge for actual rent lost and other costs of re-renting.

Give the landlord an address to mail your security deposit when you return the key. Landlords must return the full deposit within 30 days after the lease ends or send an explanation of how it was used.

Tenant Responsibilities include:

- Pay rent on time.
- Keep the home and yard clean and safe.
- Do not deliberately damage the property.
- Follow the Lease; obey all laws & codes.
- Notify your landlord of needed repairs in writing, except in emergencies. (Keep a copy of repair requests.)

North Carolina Laws (NC General Statute 42-42)

State Law requires landlords to make prompt repairs, including:

- “Maintain in good and safe working order and promptly repair all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, and other facilities and appliances supplied or required to be supplied by the landlord, provided that notification of needed repairs is made to the landlord in writing by the tenant, except in emergency situations.”
- Smoke detectors within 15 feet of all sleeping areas. Residents may be expected to replace batteries.
- Carbon Monoxide (CO) alarms on each floor of homes with fuel-burning heat, stoves, water heaters, or attached garages. Residents may need to replace batteries.
- Heating equipment that can heat living areas to 68 degrees when it is 20 degrees outside from November 1 through March 31.
- Plumbing, toilet and bathtub/shower.
- Electrical wiring.
- Steps, floors, ceilings, roofs, chimneys.
- Locks on all outside doors.
- Safe windows with working locks.
- No holes allowing entry of rats or rodents.
- No excessive standing water, sewage, or flooding caused by plumbing leaks or inadequate drainage that contribute to mosquito infestation or mold.

Other Landlord Responsibilities:

- Do what is necessary to keep the property in a livable condition.
- Provide housing and facilities required by State laws and local codes.
- Follow the Lease.
- Give proper notice to tenants.

Durham City Housing Code

In addition to NC laws, the Durham City Housing Code requires homes and yards in the City to be safe, healthy, and well-maintained.

Homes means all housing, including single-family houses, apartments, mobile homes, and boarding houses. The Housing Code protects every City resident regardless of citizenship or immigration status. For help from City Housing Inspections, call 919-560-1200.

The City Housing Code covers most items found in the home, including:

Appliances (stoves, refrigerators, etc.) provided with the home must be in good repair.

Bathrooms must have a working toilet, sink, tub or shower, & window or fan for ventilation.

Electricity must be adequate. Wiring must be enclosed. Outlets & switches must be safe (two or more duplex outlets per room).

Heat must be central or permanent space heating units that safely heat all rooms to at least 68°F. Portable electric space heaters are not adequate. Portable kerosene heaters are illegal, because they are not safe!

Hot & cold water is required.

Locks must be on all exterior doors and are operated from inside and outside, such as dead bolts, NOT barrel bolts and padlocks.

Paint must not be flaking or peeling.

Pest control is the landlord's responsibility in duplexes or other multi-family apartments.

Plumbing and fixtures must work and not leak.

Roofs must not leak.

Screens must be in good repair on all operable doors & windows on May 1 to November 1, or the home must have central air conditioning.

Security bars must be able to be opened without tools from the inside of sleeping areas.

Windows must be easy to open, close, & lock. Windows must not be broken or boarded. All rooms must have a window open to the outside

Yards have no paint chips, trash, junk, or cars.

Small Claims Court

If your landlord does not make repairs after you have given written notice, you have the right to take your landlord to court. If your home is not livable, your landlord has violated the lease. This also gives you the right to move out without further rent payment, after giving proper notice to your landlord, even if you still have time on your lease. If you stay in the home, you do NOT have the right to stop paying rent. You can sue for rent abatement from Small Claims Court. The court may award you a refund of all or part of the rent you paid during the time your landlord was in violation of the lease.

To file a claim in Small Claims Court, go to the new Courthouse, 510 South Dillard St, Durham, NC 27701, 1st floor, Civil Division. They can help you fill out the forms. The filing fee can be waived if you cannot afford it. For more information, call the Clerk of the Civil Court 919-808-3003 or the Civil Magistrate 919-808-3013.

Eviction

A landlord must go to court before evicting a tenant for not paying rent, or for violating any other terms of the lease. You should get a notice of your court date. These rules apply:

- Your landlord must win a court judgement before evicting you from your home.
- You cannot be locked out of the home before the court makes a decision.
- You must be informed that action is being taken against you and for what reason.
- If you pay what you owe plus court costs before or by the court date, the landlord cannot evict you, but you must bring the receipt to the court hearing.
- After the magistrate makes a judgement, you have 10 days to appeal, but you may have to pay a bond (usually the amount of the judgement) and future rent to the court.
- If you do not appeal, the landlord can get an order to have the Sheriff evict you within about 15 days of the hearing date.
- If you are evicted by the court process and your belongings are padlocked inside, the landlord must give you 10 days to get them.

Illegal Eviction

Your landlord may not evict you in retaliation for filing a Housing Code complaint for 12 months or the end of your lease, but you must continue to pay rent. If your landlord threatens a retaliatory eviction, call City Housing Inspections, 919-560-1647, or Legal Aid, 866-219-5262. If you are threatened with an illegal eviction, call the Sheriff's Civil Process Office, 919-560-0901.

Lead Poisoning from Old Paint

Lead paint chips & dust can poison young children. Even tiny amounts of lead can cause learning disabilities, brain damage, and other health problems.

Children under 6 are most at risk from lead. Ask your doctor for lead test or call Lincoln Community Health Center, 919-956-4000.

If a child has lead poisoning, their home and child care should be tested for lead. For help, call the Health Dept. 919-560-7800.

DO NOT dry sand or scrape paint on a home built before 1978. You could poison yourself and your children. ALWAYS use a trained, certified Lead Renovator. Get Lead Renovator training at PEACH, 919-682-1300, www.peachdurham.org.

Homes built before 1986 may have lead in solder on copper pipes. To test your water for lead, call City Water, 919-560-4386.

If you rent a home built before 1978, the owner must give you any information they have on lead-based paint and hazards in the home. You should receive the brochure: Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

Healthy Homes: Lorisa Seibel, 919-667-1000 ext. 25. Lorisa@ReinvestmentPartners.org

Fair Housing

You have the right to live anywhere you want, regardless of who you are or where you are from. Fair Housing Law prohibits discrimination in rental or sale of homes. It is illegal for a landlord to discriminate against you based on race, religion, sex, color, national origin, handicap (physical or mental disability or illness, including HIV/AIDS), or familial status (for example, if you have children or are pregnant).

Housing discrimination can take many forms. The law prohibits these practices:

- refusal to sell, rent, or lease,
- refusal to make reasonable accommodation or modification for the disabled,
- refusal to accommodate families with children,
- discriminatory advertising,
- discriminatory financing,
- steering (such as directing minorities only to predominantly minority areas).

Discrimination can be indirect as well as obvious. For example, if you are told over the telephone that a home is available but are then informed it has been rented when you arrive in person to inspect it, discrimination may have occurred.

The Fair Housing Act requires apartment buildings with 4 or more units built after March 1991 to be accessible to disabled persons. All units in buildings with elevators and all ground-floor units in buildings without elevators must be accessible.

In all apartments, a landlord must make reasonable accommodations and allow reasonable modifications to meet the needs of a disabled tenant. For example, a landlord should make common areas accessible to all tenants and should permit a tenant to install grab bars and other modifications to the home.

If you have any suspicions or complaints about the treatment you receive when renting or buying a home in Durham, contact City of Durham Human Relations, 919-560-1200.

Connecting Utilities

After you sign the lease and pay the security deposit, you can move in, but you may need to connect utilities. Some apartments include utilities in the rent, but in most cases you will have to pay to connect utilities as well as monthly bills.

Some utilities check your credit. If you have no credit or bad credit you may be required to pay a security deposit or have a co-signor or credit reference.
