

Reinvestment
PARTNERS
PEOPLE • PLACES • POLICY

Catherine Davis

Ms. Davis has worked in accounting and finance for more than thirty years with local accounting firms and businesses to regional accounting firms.

Months prior to graduation, she joined a local accounting firm and remained there for nine years. She worked in all departments from preparing and issuing payroll checks to supervising and training staff accountants. She later joined a Medical Group as Financial Analysts/Cash accountant and became Assistant to the Financial Director. She worked there for several years before moving on.

In 1995, Ms. Davis started her own accounting business, CHD Accounting Service, which provided service to commerce and retail businesses and non-profit organizations, a most rewarding service.

In 2003, she joined Durham County Government as the Compliance Manager and remained there for the next twelve and half years. Later she joined Duke Law School Public Interest and Pro Bono department as the Office Coordinator. She provided services for three years prior to coming to Reinvestment Partners. She is currently Assistant Finance Director. Ms. Davis enjoy helping other non-profits and small businesses with bookkeeping, tax problems and other assistance. She is the treasurer of the One Human Family Workshop, Inc. (OHF), a non-profit organization whose mission is “Uniting the World One Song at a Time.” She also loves gardening, crocheting, travelling and most of all entertaining her grand kids.